

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF SOUTH CAROLINA
COLUMBIA DIVISION

Jason Wade Geddings,

Plaintiff,

v.

Sumter County Sheriffs Office; Trevor C.
Brown,

Defendants.

C/A No.: 3:21-866-SAL-PJG

ORDER

This matter is before the court for review of the April 13, 2021 Report and Recommendation (the “Report”) of United States Magistrate Judge Paige J. Gossett, made in accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(b) and Local Civil Rule 73.02(B)(2) (D.S.C.). [ECF No. 10.] In the Report, the Magistrate Judge recommends dismissing this action without prejudice for Plaintiff’s failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted. Id. at 7. Plaintiff was advised that if the district court judge adopts the Report and dismisses this action, it will constitute a “strike” under the Prison Litigation Reform Act (“PLRA”). Id. (citing 28 U.S.C. § 1915(g)). Attached to the Report is a notice advising Plaintiff of the procedures and requirements for filing objections to the Report and the serious consequences if he fails to do so. Id. at 8. Plaintiff has not filed objections, and the time for doing so has expired.

The Magistrate Judge makes only a recommendation to this court. The recommendation has no presumptive weight, and the responsibility to make a final determination remains with this court. See Mathews v. Weber, 423 U.S. 261, 270–71 (1976). The court is charged with making a de novo determination of only those portions of the Report that have been specifically objected to, and the court may accept, reject, or modify the Report, in whole or in part. 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1).

In the absence of objections, the court is not required to provide an explanation for adopting the Report and must “only satisfy itself that there is no clear error on the face of the record in order to accept the recommendation.” Diamond v. Colonial Life & Acc. Ins. Co., 416 F.3d 310, 315 (4th Cir. 2005) (citing Fed. R. Civ. P. 72 advisory committee’s note).

After a thorough review of the Report, the applicable law, and the record of this case in accordance with the above standard, the court finds no clear error, adopts the Report, ECF No. 10, and incorporates the Report by reference herein. Accordingly, this action is DISMISSED without prejudice and without issuance and service of process.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
